

SPECIAL DAY CELEBRATION

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

ASANNAGAR MADAQN MOHAN TARKALANKAR COLLEGE

Date	Special Day	Importance
Rabindra Jayanti	Rabindra Jayanti is the birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore, a renowned Bengali polymath, poet, philosopher, and playwright. It's celebrated on: Date: 25th of Baisakh (Bengali calendar) = 7th May (Gregorian calendar)	Tribute to Tagore: Honors his contributions to literature, music, art, and philosophy. Cultural Icon: Celebrates his role in shaping Bengali culture and identity. Nobel Laureate: Commemorates his Nobel Prize in Literature (1913). Nationalism and Internationalism: Reflects his vision for Indian independence and global unity.
Teacher's Day Celebration	Teachers' Day in India is celebrated on September 5th, commemorating Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan's birthday, India's 2nd President and an esteemed educator.	Here's its significance: Honoring Teachers: Recognizes teachers' tireless efforts, dedication, and impact on students' lives. Tribute to Dr. Radhakrishnan: Celebrates his contributions to education, philosophy, and nation-building. Student-Teacher Bonding: Strengthens relationships between students and teachers, fostering mutual respect. 1. Guru-Shishya Parampara: Celebrates the ancient Indian tradition of reverence for teachers. Education's Importance: Highlights education's value in Indian society.
World Philosophy Day	World Philosophy Day, celebrated annually on the third Thursday of November	The significance of philosophical inquiry and its impact on society  Promoting Critical Thinking: Encourages people to reflect on fundamental questions, challenge assumptions, and cultivate critical thinking.  Fostering Global Understanding: Celebrates diverse philosophical traditions, promoting cross-cultural exchange and understanding.

Principal

Asannagar Madan Mohan Tarkalankar College
Asannagar, Nadia